

Local & National CONNECTIONS

At CJR, we enjoy the best of having local and national connections. We have the familiarity and agility of hometown management and the CJR brand equity associated with our parent company, HomeServices of America, the second largest full service real estate company in the nation and a Berkshire Hathaway Affiliate.

"In business, you can either fight to protect the old way of doing business or elect to be a major force in reshaping the future. We've chosen the latter by developing a cutting edge customer service model that fits the 21st century customer."

Ron Peltier
CEO, HomeServices of America
